

Church Partnership

Life Connections is pleased to partner with churches that help defray the costs of counseling and psychotherapy for people they refer. Effective December 1, 2012, our counselors have all agreed to a $90 per session fee for clients referred to us as part of our church partnership program. The church can determine how much of this cost they would like to cover, but we recommend that clients pay something towards their care. Please provide the information on the form below to indicate your level of support so our office manager can coordinate billing with you.
